

Planning and Building Department Development and Design Division T: 905-615-3200 x5522 www.mississauga.ca

City of Mississauga

Green Development Standard

Resilience Planning Checklist

The Resilience Planning Checklist summarizes the design features implemented to improve a building's ability to withstand climate change and extreme weather events. The aim of the checklist is to summarize the level of resilience planning undertaken in the development project and to provide the City of Mississauga with data to improve metrics in future GDS versions.

Project Information
Site Plan Application Number:
Building Archetype: Project Location/Address:

Resilience Planning Checklist

Resilience i lanning Checklist Thermal Resilience and Safety
What design measures have been taken to reduce the impacts of heat waves?

Planning and Building Department Development and Design Division T: 905-615-3200 x5522 www.mississauga.ca

On-site Flood Mitigation What flood prevention measures have been taken to mitigate the impact of heavy rainfall events and the associated risk of flooding within the building?
Manager and Tenant Preparedness
The building management has been made aware of the types of climate-resilient strategies used in The building management has been made aware of the types of climate-resilient strategies used in the building.
the building.
the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit.
the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers, the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers,
the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers, the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers, the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers, the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers, the building. The building management is aware of the location of the preparedness kit. What additional emergency preparedness strategies have been made available to building managers,